Dear Engp0'

TAX ENGAGEMENT LETTER

We appreciate the opportunity to prepare your personal income tax returns. To minimize the possibility of a misunderstanding between us, we are setting forth pertinent information about the services we will perform for you.

We will prepare your 2022 federal and state individual income tax returns from information you furnish us. It is your responsibility to give us complete and accurate information required for the preparation of your tax returns. We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although we may ask you to clarify some of the information. You are certifying that the information you provide to us can be substantiated by appropriate documentation, and that it is true, correct and complete to the best of your knowledge.

We will prepare the tax returns specified above for the 2022 tax year only. We are not responsible for the preparation of any other tax returns other than what is specified above that may be due to any taxing authority.

The 2022 tax organizer will assist you in collecting and reporting information necessary for us to properly prepare your 2022 income tax return. This organizer is designed as a tool to assist you in providing supporting documentation. Prior year data is included in the organizer sections for your reference in determining what information we require. You may find some information, such as addresses, email addresses, phone numbers, etc. needs updating. It is also important that you verify your bank account information if you would like direct deposit of a tax refund. Please feel free to jot down notes, questions and comments on the organizer. Please do not wait to return the organizer and supporting information when you are missing only a couple of items. We will be able to complete the majority of the tax return with the initial items you provide us.

We must receive all of your tax information no later than Friday, March 17, 2023, to ensure that your return will be completed by April 15, 2023. If we have not received all of your information by Friday, March 17, 2023, we cannot guarantee your return will be completed by April 18, 2023, and you may be subject to late filing or late payment penalties.

Here is a list of the items we really need you to send us:

- A copy of your 2021 tax return, if not prepared by this office.
- IP PIN number (if you were the victim of identity theft and the IRS issued one to you).
- Amounts and dates of estimated tax payments made for 2022 for both Federal and State.
- Form(s) W-2 (for wages, etc.).
- Form(s) 1099 (interest, dividends, etc.).
- Year-end brokerage statements (for stock sales: remember we need to know what you paid for the stocks and when you bought them).
- Schedule(s) K-1 (income/loss from partnerships, S-corporations and trusts).
- Form(s) 1099-SSA (for social security benefits).
- IRA, SEP & 401(k) deposits.
- Form(s) 1098 (mortgage interest).
- Copy of property tax bills paid during the year and the date they were actually paid.
- Closing statements (real estate purchases or sales).
- Charitable donations (see note below).
- IRS Form(s) 1095 or other forms received relating to health insurance coverage.
- Form(s) 1099-SA for health savings accounts deposits and withdrawals (were withdrawals used for qualified medical expenses?). Please include a year-end summary of your account from your bank.
- Paperwork for new vehicle purchases.

Please indicate the amount of any Internet or out-of-state purchases in which you did not pay sales tax: $ _____.

Charitable Donations

By law all charitable contributions claimed as a deduction on your tax return must be substantiated by keeping a written record of the contribution. Acceptable written records used to substantiate each contribution include a cancelled check or bank record that supports the donation, or a written receipt or similar statement that includes (1) the name of the donee organization, (2) the date and amount of the contribution, and (3) if any goods or services were received in exchange for the contribution. Contributions of $250 or more require a letter of acknowledgment from the charitable organization. If the resulting returns are examined by the IRS, requests may be made for the written record of the contribution. It is recommended that for any charitable contribution claimed, you retain the written records for at least seven years.

You are responsible for the accuracy of your financial records and the full and accurate disclosure to us of all relevant facts affecting the returns. It is your responsibility to maintain, in your records, the documentation necessary to support the data used in preparing your returns, including but not limited to the auto, travel, entertainment, and related expenses and the required documents to support your charitable contributions. If you have any questions as to the type of records required, ask us for advice in that regard. It is also your responsibility to carefully examine and approve your completed tax returns before signing, mailing or authorizing e-filing of the returns. We are not responsible for the disallowance of doubtful deductions or inadequately supported documentation, nor for resulting taxes, penalties and interest.

We will use our judgement to resolve questions in your favor where a tax law is unclear if there is a reasonable justification for doing so. Whenever we are aware that a possibly applicable tax law is unclear or that there are conflicting interpretations of the law by authorities (e.g. tax agencies and courts), we will explain the possible positions that may be taken on your return. We will follow whatever position you request, so long as it is consistent with the codes and regulations and interpretations that have been promulgated. If the IRS should later contest the position taken, there may be an assessment of additional tax plus interest and penalties. We assume no liability for any such additional penalties or assessments.

It is our firm's policy to retain electronic copies of your tax returns for seven years, after which they will be destroyed. We are responsible for preparing only the returns listed above. Our fee does not include responding to inquiries or examination by taxing authorities. However, we are available to represent you.

Fees for our services will be at our standard rates plus out-of-pocket expenses. Payment for service is due when rendered and interim billings may be submitted as work progresses and expenses are incurred.

We thank you for the opportunity to work with you and want you to know how much we appreciate your business.

If the above fairly sets forth your understanding, please sign and return this letter with your tax organizer.

Sincerely,

PPG Partners, LLC
